ASSEMBLY / MEETING POINT

London Fields park, by the pétanque course — opposite the golf course area, across the cycle path.

1. Action employees should take if they discover a fire

- Immediately operate the nearest alarm call-point.
- Attack the fire if possible, with the appliances available, without taking personal risks.

2. How people will be warned if there is a fire

The electrical fire alarm system will sound on operation of the manually operated alarm call-point.

3. How the evacuation of the building will be carried out

Everyone in the building should leave by the nearest exit and report to the assembly point.

4. Identification of escape routes

All exit doors can be used as escape routes. The routes leading to the front and rear doors are protected routes.

5. Fire fighting equipment provided

Fire extinguishers are located in circulation areas and near fire exit doors.

6. Duties and identity of employees with specific responsibilities in the event of fire

On hearing the alarm, all staff will usher visitors out of the building and to the assembly point.

The staff and security personnel will ensure:

- All areas are cleared of people, including the downstairs toilets, management office, cellar, and upstairs accessible toilet.
- The Fire Service is called.

7. Arrangements for the safe evacuation of people identified as being especially at risk

- Customers: staff must take responsibility for any customers in the building and ensure they leave by the nearest exit.
- Contractors: must be given information about fire procedures and leave the building by the nearest exit.
- People with disabilities: specific arrangements may need to be made for those with disabilities. These arrangements may be made with the assistance of a competent health and safety adviser.

8. How the Fire Service and any necessary emergency services will be called, and who is responsible

- On hearing the alarm, the duty manager will dial 999 and ask for the Fire Service or other emergency service as appropriate.
- Security personnel will call the Fire Service in the absence of the duty manager.

9. Procedures for liaising with the Fire Service on arrival and notifying them of any specific risks

The duty manager or security personnel will liaise with the Fire Brigade on their arrival, including notifying them of the location of any highly flammable materials.

10. Arrangements and training given to staff at the venue

- All staff — fire drills three times a year.
- All staff — fire briefing once a year (may be in conjunction with a fire drill).
- A record of training is kept within the fire manual.
- Training is reviewed on a yearly basis and planned into the budget.
